

Colour Me Up! 2024

Frequently Asked Questions

Eligibility

Who is eligible to take part?

This contest is open to all Malaysian nationals aged 7 to 12 years old and all national primary schools nationwide.

My child is interested to participate, but (s)he is only 6 years old / (s)he has not reached the age of 7. Can (s)he participate in the contest?

Kindly be informed that your child is not eligible to participate at this time, as the minimum age to participate is 7 years old.

Location

Where is this contest held?

This contest is a direct mail contest, and will not be held at a physical location.

Is this contest open to both West and East Malaysia?

Yes, this contest is open nationwide.

Registration / How to Join

How much is the registration fee for this contest?

There is no registration fee required for participating in the contest.

How do I register for this contest?

No registration is required; you only need to complete the contest form and mail it back to us.

How can my child join this contest? Where can I download the contest form?

Kindly download and print out the contest form here. (This link is also available in the sidebar on the website.) Once the form has been coloured and completed with all the necessary details of the child and parent/guardian, please fold the form as indicated and mail it back to us using the paid reply attached to the contest form. No stamp is required.

Printing

What size should I print / photocopy the contest form in?

Please print / photocopy the contest form in A4 size only. This is to ensure consistency and smooth delivery of your contest forms back to the organiser.

The colouring section on the page is too small. Can I enlarge it?

No. The form is designed to be that way – colouring section on top and particulars to be filled up at the bottom – all in a single A4 page. Kindly do not alter the contest form.

Can I photocopy the contest forms?

Yes, photocopied forms are accepted.

Do I need to print / photocopy in colour?

No. We accept black and white printed / photocopied forms.

Can I print / photocopy the colouring page only?

No. Please print / photocopy both sides of the contest form, double-sided. This is because the contest details and terms and conditions are stated on the back page, which should go together as a valid contest entry.

Submission of Entries

How do I submit my contest entry? Am I required to pay for submission?

There is a paid reply section attached to the contest form. You need only fold the form as indicated, ensure that the paid reply section is visible, and send it back to us via regular post. Kindly be informed that no payment is necessary for submission.

Can I email my entry?

No. We only accept physical submissions of the contest forms.

Are any supporting documents required to be submitted together with my contest entry (e.g. child's Kid IC / parent's IC)?

No supporting documents are necessary.
